

Examples from other organisations

Monetary Authority of Singapore

- MAS Tech and Data Talent Programme (TEDA) is a 2-year programme offering curated training and hands-on experience to work on tech solutions and products
 - MAS is developing a strong sustainable finance research and talent development ecosystem, comprising Centres of Excellence set up by our universities, Asia Pacific sustainability hubs established by financial institutions, and training providers
 - MAS offers formal internal rotations within different functions
 - MAS also offers attachment opportunities to other Central Banks, financial institutions, supervisory authorities, government agencies, international organisations
-